

Harding University
Scholar Works at Harding

John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence

John Allen Chalk

3-8-1971

From: Eula Mae Altman

Eula Mae Altman

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

Recommended Citation

Altman, E. M. (1971). From: Eula Mae Altman. Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/3212>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

1162 Remount Rd
N. Charleston S.C. 29406

8 Mar. 71

Dear John Allen:

Tonite I must drop you a line. It's still unreal to me, that you're there, at a time of great need for me. A time of decision. How antifeel ended, are the feet those that help us to find ours (He was there all the time! Just Waiting!)

Thank you for hearing me, letting me talk. John Allen, I still can't believe it was I, that had fallen so dreadfully. The mood it brought forth in my personal life, so much loneliness and gain, seems as though it is someone else not I. However, that may well have been God's way for me. He knows how I live the life and the living of it, and seems He allowed this and thus that He is my Father and He loves me. Even with all my sins. How He loves us!

~~But~~ Now I can scarcely see cause believe it or not can weep unashamedly me of it for joy. Some of it sorrow for those among us that have to hurt Him so badly by being prodigal children of God, wonder how many of us ever come back? May I pray that I through Him may keep the faith, use His redeeming blood for daily cleansing. He, as you nurtured me so beautifully, renewed each day by the power of His Spirit. That many stand & be able to keep others. Already great blessings have come to me, here at home, of course there are myne + His family are well, happy to have "Moms" me! My little grandsons Wald & Mark are my mainstay times - How dear they are!

The Church here is going forward, Jim Creech is a dedicated young minister or, Elders are trying to do this side, so it goes. ^{hows}

I love you and your lovely family, May you continue on in always - you know what? Wish you were here, my! How the house would fill with folks! and many admirers among people at N. Charleston

Bye now. Yours in Love
Eula Mae Altman

Thank you! Dear Friend!